Il est sacré meilleur footballeur évoluant en Europe en obtenant le Ballon d'or le 13 décembre 2004.

Ce garçon-là est un chasseur. Avec déjà plus 100 buts à son actif en moins de cinq saisons dans le réputé ultra-défensif championnat italien, Andriy Shevchenko est le premier Ukrainien -et le seul- à avoir remporté la Ligue des champions. Comme il fut le premier étranger à terminer meilleur buteur de Série A dès sa saison inaugurale. Numéro 1 en tout, "Sheva" souhaite maintenant qualifier l'Ukraine pour Allemagne 2006. En marquant but sur but. Et il est homme à respecter son plan de carrière.
